Riblja Čorba was formed in 1978 by vocalist Bora Đorđević, guitarist Rajko Kojić, bass guitarist Miša Aleksić and drummer Vicko Milatović. Their debut release, the single "Lutka sa naslovne strane" (1978), saw huge success and launched them to fame throughout the balkans. They were soon joined by guitarist Momčilo Bajagić "Bajaga", the new lineup releasing the album Kost u grlu (1979), which was a huge commercial and critical success.

The book YU 100: The Best albums of Yugoslav pop and rock music, published in 1998, featured a record eight Riblja Čorba albums: Kost u grlu (No. 16), Mrtva priroda (No. 19), Pokvarena mašta i prljave strasti (No. 23), Istina (No. 43), Buvlja pijaca (No. 64), Večeras vas zabavljaju muzičari koji piju (No. 80), Osmi nervni slom (No. 83), and U ime naroda (No. 85)
